Trust, confidence and integrity were three factors very important to both Linda and I when selecting a contractor for our new home.

We both believed JMC could fulfill those requirements, meeting and exceeding our expectations.

After selecting JMC, on the recommendation of our architect, JMC earned our trust in the painstaking, systematic procedure necessary for a truly custom home. Their attention to detail and insistence on quality helped us relax during this otherwise stressful time.

John Cherveney has that "can do" spirit. He has the confidence that the project will be done right and in a timely manner making our dream a reality.

The last, but not the least important quality to Linda and I is integrity. It is especially important in these uncertain times to be dealing with individuals who are honest and not out to waste your money and your dream.

JMC, under the direction of John Cherveney and assisted by Daria Schulte and Audrey Klemzak, has that quality. We are proud of our home and proud to say it was built by JMC. We would strongly recommend JMC to both friends and family.

Sincerely,
